EMECO MANAGING DIRECTOR TO STEP DOWN

The Chairman of Emeco Holdings Limited (ASX:EHL), Mr Alec Brennan, announced today that Mr Keith Gordon has decided to step down from his role as Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer later this year.

Mr Gordon has advised the board that he intends take a short break from corporate life and will then consider his next career challenge.

The Emeco Board will now commence a search for a new Managing Director.

In order to ensure a smooth leadership transition, Mr Gordon will remain in his current position until a successor is appointed and commences with the Company.

Mr Brennan thanked Mr Gordon for his contribution to the Company since his appointment as Managing Director in December 2009. "Keith has overseen a period of significant transformation at Emeco. We thank him for his efforts and wish him well in his future endeavours," Mr Brennan said.

About Emeco (ASX: EHL)

Established in 1972, Emeco is the world's largest, independent mining equipment rental business. Emeco is a publicly listed ASX 200 company with a global rental fleet of approximately 1000 machines, servicing major resource projects across Australia, Canada, Chile and Indonesia. Emeco is not aligned with a single original equipment manufacturer (OEM), instead it operates a global fleet of OEM machines to deliver the most suitable equipment rental solutions for its customers.
